Memorandum

Plaintiff requests such leave for the very limited purpose of responding to two arguments raised in the reply brief filed by Defendant Chubb & Son Insurance (“Defendant,” “Chubb”). In its reply brief in support of its motion for summary judgment, Defendant asserts that Mr. Baillie’s “claim for punitive damages and any claim for damages resulting from his voluntary election not to exercise stock options” must be dismissed, as according to Defendant, Mr. Baillie “fails to even address Chubb’s argument and evidence regarding punitive damages and unexercised stock option.” (Def. Rep. Supp. Def. M.S.J.) These assertions are contrary to law and cannot properly be determined at the summary judgment stage.

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court file the attached two-page proffer of his sur-reply, clarifying that Plaintiff has not surrendered claims to Defendant’s motion for summary judgement merely by resisting response to issues Defendant should not raise at the summary judgment stage. A two-page proffer of the proposed sur-reply is attached.

Respectfully submitted,
